

DEAR SENATOR:

I'd like to relay a message from Rachel Corrie, an American peace activist who was recently killed by an Israeli bulldozer. Two and a half weeks before her death, she wrote this prescient e-mail to her mother:

"Coming here is one of the better things I've ever done. So when I sound crazy or if the Israeli military should break with their racist tendency not to injure white people, please pin the reason squarely on the fact that I am in the midst of a genocide which I am indirectly supporting, and for which my government is largely responsible."

Our government is responsible for the heartache in Palestine. We have blocked U.N. requests for an international protection force in the occupied territories. If peacekeepers had been in Gaza and the West Bank, they could have prevented Israel's brutal actions against Palestinian civilians, as well as Rachel's death. And now, only days after the inexcusable murder of an American by an Israeli soldier, President Bush has asked Congress for extra aid for Israel to help it carry out its illegal occupation. Please send no more of my tax dollars to Israel.

FROM: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

TO:

SENATOR _____

(name of your Senator)

U.S. SENATE
WASHINGTON, DC 20510

PLACE
23¢
STAMP
HERE

DEAR SENATOR:

I'd like to relay a message from Rachel Corrie, an American peace activist who was recently killed by an Israeli bulldozer. Two and a half weeks before her death, she wrote this prescient e-mail to her mother:

"Coming here is one of the better things I've ever done. So when I sound crazy or if the Israeli military should break with their racist tendency not to injure white people, please pin the reason squarely on the fact that I am in the midst of a genocide which I am indirectly supporting, and for which my government is largely responsible."

Our government is responsible for the heartache in Palestine. We have blocked U.N. requests for an international protection force in the occupied territories. If peacekeepers had been in Gaza and the West Bank, they could have prevented Israel's brutal actions against Palestinian civilians, as well as Rachel's death. And now, only days after the inexcusable murder of an American by an Israeli soldier, President Bush has asked Congress for extra aid for Israel to help it carry out its illegal occupation. Please send no more of my tax dollars to Israel.

FROM: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

TO:

SENATOR _____

(name of your Senator)

U.S. SENATE
WASHINGTON, DC 20510

PLACE
23¢
STAMP
HERE

DEAR REPRESENTATIVE:

I'd like to relay a message from Rachel Corrie, an American peace activist who was recently killed by an Israeli bulldozer. Two and a half weeks before her death, she wrote this prescient e-mail to her mother:

"Coming here is one of the better things I've ever done. So when I sound crazy or if the Israeli military should break with their racist tendency not to injure white people, please pin the reason squarely on the fact that I am in the midst of a genocide which I am indirectly supporting, and for which my government is largely responsible."

Our government is responsible for the heartache in Palestine. We have blocked U.N. requests for an international protection force in the occupied territories. If peacekeepers had been in Gaza and the West Bank, they could have prevented Israel's brutal actions against Palestinian civilians, as well as Rachel's death. And now, only days after the inexcusable murder of an American by an Israeli soldier, President Bush has asked Congress for extra aid for Israel to help it carry out its illegal occupation. Please send no more of my tax dollars to Israel.

FROM: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

TO:

REPRESENTATIVE _____

(name of your Representative)

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, DC 20515

PLACE
23¢
STAMP
HERE

You may wish to send these cards to the two Senators and one Representative in whose constituencies
you vote.

If you can make copies you may wish to send one to:

President George W. Bush
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20500

You may wish to send these cards as addressed on the reverse side. If you can make copies, you may also wish to send them to President Bush, other members of Congress, talk show hosts and editors of the publications you read. Or you can download these post-cards into an e-mail message to recipients of your choice from our Web site at www.wrmea.com

Rachel Corrie, a 23-year-old American student from Olympia, Washington, was killed in Rafah refugee camp, Gaza. On March 16, 2003, she was crushed to death by a U.S.-made, Israeli-Defense Forces-driven Caterpillar bulldozer. Rachel was trying to prevent the demolition of the home of a Palestinian doctor with whom she, and other International Solidarity Movement members, had often stayed. Since June 2002 the IDF has demolished more than 150 homes.

PRODUCED BY THE WASHINGTON REPORT, PO BOX 53062, WASHINGTON, DC 20009

Pictures show that Rachel, wearing a bright orange coat and pleading through a bullhorn, was both close enough to be seen and heard by the IDF driver, and far enough away for him to have plenty of time to stop. He chose not to. As Rachel and other human rights activists shouted and waved for the driver to stop, he drove his bulldozer over her, then, according to eyewitness reports, backed his bulldozer over Rachel again. The IDF claimed Rachel's death was accidental.

Nine days later, President George W. Bush submitted a request for $1 billion in military grants and $9 billion in economic loan guarantees for Israel. This is in addition to the $2.04 billion in U.S. military grants and $720 million in economic aid Israel already will be receiving this year.

Rachel Corrie, a 23-year-old American student from Olympia, Washington, was killed in Rafah refugee camp, Gaza. On March 16, 2003, she was crushed to death by a U.S.-made, Israeli-Defense Forces-driven Caterpillar bulldozer. Rachel was trying to prevent the demolition of the home of a Palestinian doctor with whom she, and other International Solidarity Movement members, had often stayed. Since June 2002 the IDF has demolished more than 150 homes.

PRODUCED BY THE WASHINGTON REPORT, PO BOX 53062, WASHINGTON, DC 20009

Pictures show that Rachel, wearing a bright orange coat and pleading through a bullhorn, was both close enough to be seen and heard by the IDF driver, and far enough away for him to have plenty of time to stop. He chose not to. As Rachel and other human rights activists shouted and waved for the driver to stop, he drove his bulldozer over her, then, according to eyewitness reports, backed his bulldozer over Rachel again. The IDF claimed Rachel's death was accidental.

Nine days later, President George W. Bush submitted a request for $1 billion in military grants and $9 billion in economic loan guarantees for Israel. This is in addition to the $2.04 billion in U.S. military grants and $720 million in economic aid Israel already will be receiving this year.

Rachel Corrie, a 23-year-old American student from Olympia, Washington, was killed in Rafah refugee camp, Gaza. On March 16, 2003, she was crushed to death by a U.S.-made, Israeli-Defense Forces-driven Caterpillar bulldozer. Rachel was trying to prevent the demolition of the home of a Palestinian doctor with whom she, and other International Solidarity Movement members, had often stayed. Since June 2002 the IDF has demolished more than 150 homes.

PRODUCED BY THE WASHINGTON REPORT, PO BOX 53062, WASHINGTON, DC 20009

Pictures show that Rachel, wearing a bright orange coat and pleading through a bullhorn, was both close enough to be seen and heard by the IDF driver, and far enough away for him to have plenty of time to stop. He chose not to. As Rachel and other human rights activists shouted and waved for the driver to stop, he drove his bulldozer over her, then, according to eyewitness reports, backed his bulldozer over Rachel again. The IDF claimed Rachel's death was accidental.

Nine days later, President George W. Bush submitted a request for $1 billion in military grants and $9 billion in economic loan guarantees for Israel. This is in addition to the $2.04 billion in U.S. military grants and $720 million in economic aid Israel already will be receiving this year.

Rachel Corrie (1979-2003)

