

DEAR SENATOR:

The Palestinian refugees' legitimate right of return has been asserted time and again through numerous United Nations resolutions, all of which Israel disregards with impunity. For decades, the United States has blindly supported Israel's constant violation of international law. Our apathy in this regard has resulted in 53 years of Palestinian suffering—three generations of Palestinians forced to live and die in squalid refugee camps. Their crime in the eyes of the United States and Israel, it seems, is that they were born Palestinian. In my eyes, the real criminals are those who rail against international law and world opinion, exempting themselves from the obligations faced by every other nation on earth. As a citizen of the U.S.A. whose tax dollars enable and perpetuate Israeli injustice, I am unwillingly implicated in these crimes. As my senator, it is your responsibility to clear my name and bring justice to 5 million Palestinian refugees.

A Palestinian boy picks through a trash dump at the Shatila refugee camp in Lebanon. Around 3.5 million Palestinian refugees are registered with the United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA). An estimated 1.5 million are un-registered, for a total of 5 million Palestinian refugees—over half the total number of Palestinians worldwide. Their right of return, which Israel so vehemently opposes, is guaranteed by international law and world opinion: In 1948, U.N. General Assembly Resolution 194 (III) resolved that “the refugees wishing to return to their homes... should be permitted to do so,” while “compensation should be paid for the property of those choosing not to return.” After the 1967 Arab-Israeli war, the U.N. Security Council issued Resolution 237 calling on Israel “to facilitate the return” of Palestinians who fled or were exiled from the West Bank and Gaza Strip.
